Board Memo

Re: Employee Benefits: sick/personal time, birthday, vacation days Date: April 16, 2021

Assessor Davis and Supervisor Neal were reviewing the benefits provided to Township Employees and would appreciate you weighing in on the matter. There are 3 items to discuss:

1. Vacation days: The current manual provided employees who worked more than 15 years at Zion Township with 5 weeks of vacation. Both Assessor Davis and Supervisor Neal would like to reduce that to a maximum of 4 weeks.

Ł
	Calendar Years of	Vacation Hours	In Terms of 8-hour
	Credited Service	Awarded	workdays
	1-5	80	10
	5-10	120	15
	10 - 15	160	20
	15+	200	25

Calendar Years of Credited Service	Vacation Hours Awarded	In Terms of 8- hour workdays
1-5	80	10
6 – 14	120	15
15+	160	20

There are currently two employees who will be negatively impacted by this change. The Township Attorney, Scott Nemanich stated it is fully in our purview to do whatever we like in this regards. We would like to honor the current benefit this year and move to the new vacation guidelines beginning next year.

- 2. Employees currently receive 1 personal day each month to be used as necessary. For any unused days at the end of the year, they are allowed to turn them in for ½ pay. Supervisor Neal believes this is a win-win for all and would like it to remain the policy. Assessor Davis would prefer to move to 4 personal days and 8 sick days with no reimbursement for unused sick days and no roll-over for personal days.
- 3. Currently, employees get their birthday off, which Supervisor Neal approves of. Assessor Davis does not and would like to eliminate this benefit.

We would appreciate your input on these items at our April board meeting. We will then bring all Employee Manual changes we recommend to the May board meeting.
